

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is an example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. We need to strengthen media ownership rules, and somehow stop serving up a documentary as news.